

SÍ, ITALY

WEDDING IN TUSCANY

“Beyond the borders of big cities and all well-known tourist sights, there is one more Tuscany – the picturesque, peaceful country hidden from the sight of ignorant visitors. And here, in green hills of Tuscan countryside surrounded from all sides by wavy hills full of vineyards, olive trees giving its best, and with the views from the window of a stone villa, which all together look like a cliché painting, you can discover the towns with fully living Medici spirit; where honest work, food, and wine come together with the feeling of a life fulfillment; the places, where you rediscover the beauty in simple things of a life around us...”

Zdenka Zahumenska has fallen in love with this amazing part of our planet six years ago, and she has established there her travel agency called “Sí, Italy”. Zdenka offers the visitors seeking for a holiday under the Tuscany sun only those experiences, which she has experienced and tasted. There are very good relationships with the owners of the settlements, and the guests know that they can rely on them, whether it is a recommendation by the selection of the settlements according to their imagination, creation of an authentic program, assistance team available on phone, or personal care directly in Tuscany.

“Four years ago, I came with a courageous idea to offer our guests a charming atmosphere in the connection with organizing one of the most important moments in the life of every one of us... the wedding day. Until today, we have managed to organize many weddings – from the small ones in the circle of a family, through the rustic ones in the heart of a beautiful nature, up to the most opulent ones with a long list of invited guests, with many miniature details on one of these majestic stony settlements located in the middle of such amazing wavy landscape. I am always very thankful, and also try to feel responsible when we receive a request from someone, who has decided to give his or her big day into our hands, and who trusts us. We will gladly help you with the whole process of preparations, from the administrative work, up to the smallest details, which mean so much for you. We care for everything and it all depends only on your wishes.”
